

Washing Instructions

1. Remove tie dye from bag
2. Carefully cut off rubber bands
3. Rinse under running water, until water is pretty clear
4. Wash on it's own in the washing machine with your regular detergent (you can put more than one fresh tie dye in, just not with other clothing)
5. Hang in the sun to dry and iron once dry, or place in the dryer, the heat from the iron of dryer will help make sure the dye is set properly.

Washing Instructions

1. Remove tie dye from bag
2. Carefully cut off rubber bands
3. Rinse under running water, until water is pretty clear
4. Wash on it's own in the washing machine with your regular detergent (you can put more than one fresh tie dye in, just not with other clothing)
5. Hang in the sun to dry and iron once dry, or place in the dryer, the heat from the iron of dryer will help make sure the dye is set properly.

Washing Instructions

1. Remove tie dye from bag
2. Carefully cut off rubber bands
3. Rinse under running water, until water is pretty clear
4. Wash on it's own in the washing machine with your regular detergent (you can put more than one fresh tie dye in, just not with other clothing)
5. Hang in the sun to dry and iron once dry, or place in the dryer, the heat from the iron of dryer will help make sure the dye is set properly.

Washing Instructions

1. Remove tie dye from bag
2. Carefully cut off rubber bands
3. Rinse under running water, until water is pretty clear
4. Wash on it's own in the washing machine with your regular detergent (you can put more than one fresh tie dye in, just not with other clothing)
5. Hang in the sun to dry and iron once dry, or place in the dryer, the heat from the iron of dryer will help make sure the dye is set properly.