

Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go. Joshua 1:9

God is in control. This is a tremendous reassurance for us at any time, but even more so as we travel through a world turned sideways because of viruses, divisive politics, and violent protests. The world does not seem like a safe place for a Cadet-aged boy.

God's promise to Joshua, and His promise to us, is that He will be with us through all situations. He did not promise it would be easy. He did not say, kick back and relax, watch what I'm about to do. No, He knew we would be afraid, He knew discouragement lay ahead, and He knew we were going to need strength and courage to get through what was to come.

Through this Cadet season we have seen how numerous Biblical characters needed to rely on the fact God was in control of their situation. Whatever difficulties we come across in our futures, we have a foundation that allows us to say, "It's okay, I know God's got this, He's in control."

The Cadets in this church are members of an organization consisting of clubs in the United States, Canada, Kenya, Uganda, South Sudan, the Ukraine, and partner clubs in New Zealand and Australia. The Calvinist Cadet Corps is an independent ministry, not connected to, or receiving funding from, any denomination. We rely on your gifts and offerings to allow us to continue providing ministry materials for the boys and counselors.
